

We are departing from the Durham Alternative School parking lot, across the street from the hall
Friday May 17th @ 0630hrs

PACKING LIST - Gettysburg 2019

* It is expected that all clothing worn by cadets on this weekend will be modest in nature and will not be offensive in any way. No alcohol advertising or vulgar phrases will be tolerated. Parents please double check the clothing your cadet is bringing on the trip. We are ambassadors of Canada and the Air Cadet program.

The following items MUST be brought:

- Birth certificate if born in Canada, valid passport or citizenship card for those not born in Canada
- Health card (original)
- Squadron Cadet ID card – please let Lt Di Loreto know if you need a card (initial card is free, replacement is $2)
- 2 navy blue Squadron t-shirts (one each of the bird and the roundel - can be purchased at the hall on sign up nights for $15 each)
- Sunscreen
- Water bottle – bring this full of water and with your name marked on it
- Prescription medication in original containers (only enough for duration of the trip)
- Personal toiletries – soap, deodorant, toothbrush and toothpaste etc. Shower shoes are recommended, male cadets are required to be clean shaven daily
- Towel
- Combination lock
- Spending money in USD – please note, meals are provided, spending money is only for extras
- Underwear x 4
- Socks x 4
- Pants x 2
- Shorts
- Shirts, long and short sleeved (Squadron t-shirts are required for Saturday and Sunday, no objectionable slogans on other shirts)
- PT gear – t-shirt, shorts or athletic pants and running shoes and a baseball glove if you have one
- Jacket
- Rain gear – outside events will happen rain or shine
- Shoes
- Sleeping bag & pillow

Friday (Dress for today – respectable civilian clothing)

Saturday (Dress for today – squadron t-shirt roundel)

Sunday (Dress for today - squadron t-shirt eagle)

Monday (Dress for today – respectable civilian clothing)

* Major Weigel will be the emergency contact on the trip in the US. Contact him only in the case of an emergency. Please ensure that you have given your emergency contact information to the staff for the weekend in case you need to be reached while your cadet is away.

* We are planning on returning to Oshawa on Monday May 20th late afternoon/early evening. Please check our Facebook page “151 Chadburn Squadron – Royal Canadian Air Cadets” for updated arrival times and cadets will contact parents after crossing the border back into Canada.

Information can be found @ <http://www.chadburn.org/activities/year-end-trip>

* NOTE - Space will be at a premium, please pack minimally in one bag that will get put under the bus. Your small backpack that is taken on the bus can carry snacks and personal entertainment.